

EL ALMA, LIBERIA

Slow down and disconnect at El Alma. There's not a single TV set here, but you'll be transfixed by the hills on the Península Papagayo and Costa Rica's gleaming north Pacific coast. Turn your attention, instead, to the yoga, meditation and tango classes on offer, or the Arnold Palmer golf course next door.

CLIFF HOUSE, MAINE

Encapsulating the best of New England hospitality, Cliff House – perched atop Bald Head Cliff, at the edge of the Atlantic – offers over 70 acres of panoramic ocean and coastal views of Cape Neddick. Each room or suite has a private terrace to maximise your oceanside experience, while the rustic Nubb's Lobster Shack and the spa's cliff-side sun lounge sanctuary will set your spirits soaring.
